Financial Policy

Your first appointment with Root Canal Center of Naples typically includes an evaluation and the option of treatment, if treatment is indicated. If you have dental insurance, please let us know. As a courtesy to you, we are happy to file a claim with your insurance company on your behalf. Please provide us a copy of your insurance card. Our experience has been that most standard dental plans may end up covering up to 100% of the cost of treatment (aside from your deductible), which will be reimbursed to you by your insurance company. All fees from today's visit are payable at the time of service. We will provide you with a statement of services rendered.

Although we have eliminated billing in this office, we do offer a payment plan option which provides up to six months of interest free credit, if you qualify. If you are interested in this option, please inquire at our front desk.

Our office is unable to negotiate any dispute you may have with your insurance company regarding the amount of benefits paid on your claim.

INFORMED CONSENT FOR ROOT CANAL THERAPY

Brief Explanation of Endodontics: Endodontics treats the soft tissue inside the tooth called the pulp. Endodontic Therapy (Root Canal) is necessary when the pulp of a tooth becomes inflamed or infected, which may result from deep decay, a cracked or chipped tooth, broken or loose filling, a blow to the mouth which damage the pulp, or extensive dental procedures on a tooth.

Recommend Treatment: The recommended treatment for damaged or diseased pulp is root canal therapy. Under local anesthesia, an opening is made into the middle of the tooth and the pulp tissue is removed from the root canals. The canal spaces are then smoothed, filled and sealed. The expected benefit is to prolong the life of the tooth. The success rate is over 90 percent.

Risk of Treatment: Risk include, but are not limited to, the following: cyst formation, acute or chronic infection, separation of the delicate instruments used within the canal, chronic biting sensitivity, and root fracture. Root canal treatment does not change the chances for gum disease or new decay.

Alternatives to this treatment:

1. It is possible to live with a chronic infection. However, this would be unhealthy. If your resistance decreases, the infection from around the roots could travel to other parts of your system, causing potentially serious problems.
2. Extraction of your tooth would solve the problem.

Other Considerations: There is no guarantee that root canal therapy will be successful. We make every effort to treat you according to the most modern and scientific methods and follow CDC Guidelines for the prevention and spread of infection. There is a possibility if your tooth has an existing crown that the porcelain may chip or crack and will need to be repaired or replaced by your general dentist.

Financial Consideration: Full payment is required at the time of treatment, unless you have insurance that we are contracted with. We are happy to quote our current fees prior to treatment. If insurance is involved you will pay your percentage at that time. If there is any balance that the insurance does not pay, you are responsible for the balance. If not received within 45 days after insurance payment the account will be sent to collections.

Following root canal treatment: It is your responsibility to have your tooth restored with a "permanent" filling or crown by your regular dentist after root canal treatment. A crown is usually required.

By your signature below, you affirm that you have read and understand the information provided in this form, or have had it explained to you. Further, you understand that endodontic treatment is not guaranteed. You have been advised that you may need to see your regular dentist for "permanent" restoration, usually a crown (cap), following your root canal. Your consent to endodontic therapy, by the endodontist who treats you, is given freely and you acknowledge your responsibility for all fees incurred at this office, and to continue regular dental care with your dentist.
